

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

I am against the rolling back of existing limitations on media ownership. The separation of power and influence is essential in the pursuit of open, fair, and unbiased news reporting. The more perspectives, and decenting opinions a society has access to, the healthier its democracy is. Lets keep our media as diverse as possible. Thanks, Antonio Sella
